HAS PREVIOUS DANCING TEACHER BEEN ADVISED? YES/NO

The procedure in relation to the Dancer Transfer Form

- Out of courtesy, the parent/guardian/over 18 years dancer should advise the previous teacher of their intention of changing studios. If the split is not amicable, then this may not occur.
- If the previous teacher has not been advised, the new teacher should contact the previous teacher to advise of the change of teacher.
- The form is completed and then signed by the new teacher.
- The form is submitted to either the previous teacher or the Dancer Registrar to obtain the previous teacher's signature.
- It is up to the previous teacher whether or not they wish to sign the form.
